'ZONE IO, ZONE IO'

"I don't believe this. This is the fifth fire drill we've had today!"

"Yeah! And it's only 3° outside."

"Who do they think they are? I mean, they know the administration just gets on their backs if they catch them."

"This year has really been strange, you know?"

"You can say that again!"

"This year has been . . ."

"Okay, okay I get the idea."

"I mean I couldn't believe all the new teachers we had in September. I thought I was in the wrong school."

"Yeah, I guess that's progress. They're only trying to help us towards a better system."

"So why don't they just get rid of the ones that aren't helping the system?"

"Well, it's a start. The thing that really burned me this year was those passes."

"I don't believe it, a new color every semester. By the time this year's freshmen graduate, they'll have seen passes in every color of the rainbow."

"At least one thing was good this year — our football team."

"Stupid Jocks."

"Hey, those guys worked really hard. I went to a couple of games and I couldn't believe the spirit everyone had."

"Well, I went to that pep assembly for them, and my ears are still ringing."

"And what about the wrestling team???"

"Uh, oh, here we go!"

"They were fantastic this year. Not every school gets to be champions."

"Co-Champions."

"As far as I'm concerned, we're the best in Monroe County."

"As I was saying, about those horrible pep rallies . . ."

"Don't you know anything about spirit? About people getting together to support their school? I think it's great. It's about time that the kids in Hilton became proud of their teams. And about all the noise — it's a lot better than that music in the Commons. I've only heard CMF a couple of times this year. Or was it last year? It's been so long I can't remember."

"CMF! That garbage What about DKX?"

"Oh no! Here we go with the old disco freaks again. You're the only one I know who's seen "Saturday Night Fever" five times and wears K.C. and the Sunshine Band pajamas."

"It was only 3 times, and at least I didn't go and see "Smoky and the Bandit."

Now that was a movie."

"Would you believe I forgot my lunch?"

"Don't worry, I'm sure SUNY vending is whipping up something yummy!"

"Don't make me sick."

"I won't, but the food in the cafeteria will."

"I couldn't believe they actually had them make the food for the Christmas Ball."

"At least we had good food at the Senior Ball."

"Yeah, but my girlfriend spilled punch on her dress and every time we got up to dance, we had to slow dance so that no one could see the spot on her dress."

"I don't think it would have made much difference. That dance floor was so crowded, we couldn't even do the Hustle."

"Hey, did you get a yearbook this year?"

"Na, all that false sentiment really makes me sick. They go on and on about how great the year was, and it wasn't all that super. Besides, the same people are on every page."

"Well, I heard this year they were going to be different. And what do you mean this year hasn't been all that great? The senior class has really done a lot for this school and I don't think people are going to forget us, at least not until we graduate."

"Then it's good-bye, '78; hello '79, next year's super class, etc. etc."

"But, this year's yearbook is supposed to say, 'Okay, everybody's different, and we don't all get along, but that just shows our individuality and that we can choose the people we feel we want as friends.' I guess there's some little cartoon guy who shows up in the book every so often, and he's just supposed to represent all of us. Ferd tries everything — some things he's good at and some things he's not so good at."

"Sounds like a Nerd to me."

"Not really . . . don't tell me that you're good at everything?"

"Maybe not. Do you think they'll have some extra books around, in case somebody might want to buy one?"

"You'll just have to wait and see."

"Hey, everybody's going inside."

"Don't worry, we'll be out here again next period."

"Wish this was Perkins"

The class of 1980, the Sophomore class, did a great job on its Homecoming float. For Halloween they sold carnations.

The class planned to sell class shirts and get class rings. They also planned on selling candy and carnations. One of its greatest accomplishments this year was beating all the other classes in the relay races during the fall pep rally for the football team.

Mad Munchkin Unleashed

There were reports of a "Mad Munchkin" running about the high school. When no one was looking he changed the radio station being played in the Commons. His favorite station appeared to be WEZO, but he was known to play WNYR. Despite desperate attempts by students to hear their favorite stations, WBBF and WCMF, the "Mad Munchkin" still got his way. Someday we will catch him and normal music will once again be restored to the Commons.

Work, work, work!!!

The Class of 1979 started off its Junior year with three car washes. Members sold carnations on St. Patrick's Day, Valentine's Day, and for Christmas.

The big fund raiser for the Juniors was selling concessions at all the home basketball games and wrestling matches. The Junior play, "Murder in Cairo," was presented in January. In March, the Junior Class sponsored a faculty basketball game for the second year in a row.

To wrap the year up, the Junior Prom was held on May 13 in the gym. The chairman and co-chairman were Vicki Willis and Terry Merkel.

What's Spare Time???

Spare time is important to everyone in school, and each one of us has his or her own interests in which to fill that time. There are sports enthusiasts, music lovers, hunters, and even people who do homework (once in a while). Some students spend their time watching television or partying. But a phrase which states what we all do in our spare time is "raise hell."

The Children's Theatre was started in 1974 by Lori Schreppel, who was using it as a college project. It has been carried on as a tradition every year since. The profits received go to the Drama Club Scholarship Fund.

This year they presented the plays "Rumplestiltskin" and "Linda the Lonely."

Tanya Hornburg and Theo Townshend in "Rumplestiltskin."

Mr. and Mrs. Schreppel give final notes at dress rehearsal.

A slice of life of a small town in America was brought through in the presentation of Our Town. This play is different in the respect that the cast used pantomiming instead of props.

The main characters of the play were Emily Webb (Tanya Hornburg), George Gibbs (Jeff Sutherland), and the Stage Manager (Theo Townshend).

The play, written by Thornton Wilder, was directed by Ted and Edith Schreppel. The presentation was held on November 17th, 18th, and 19th.

ATAD

"I spent this past summer in Cali, Columbia as an exchange student. Cali is the third largest city in Columbia. It has a population of 1.5 million. It was very hot in Cali.

My family was very nice to me. They had a big bouquet of flowers for me when I arrived. I had five sisters, three brothers and six nieces and nephews. My family did everything they possibly could to make my stay in Cali pleasant.

My family took me to Apurace for a vacation. Apurace is high in the mountains near a volcano. It was cold there. There were swimming pools filled with natural water from the volcano.

I enjoyed my trip very much! I made many new friends and learned many new things. It was an experience of a lifetime."

Juanita Ingrahm

"My trip to Denmark was an experience I will remember the rest of my life. The country's culture was so much different than we are accustomed to that it showed me a different insight into my life.

Denmark is a small European country located outside Germany. It has a population of over 10 million and the people are very friendly and outgoing. It has a moderate climate similar to the United States.

It will be hard for me to forget the family that I stayed with and the friends that I met there.

I know that everyone says that they would like to return to their 'host country' some day, but I sincerely believe I will some day, because the memories that linger make it hard for me to forget the families and friends I made there."

Two Social Studies classes got together last winter and decided to take a one day trip to Washington. To raise money for the trip they held a movie and had a roller skating party. They went by airplane and when they got there it was a rainy day. While they were there they went through the White House and met Midge Costanza. They all thought that the day was a great experience.

The Marching Band, directed by Mr. Dave Smalley, set new goals for the 1977 marching season. The emphasis changed from street marching to field performances. In addition to the regular local parades, the band also took part in the New York State Field Band Conference. This involved the band traveling to different parts of the state to perform in field shows. The season stretched into late October when the final state competition for both eastern and western N.Y. bands was held at East Syracuse. The Hilton Crimson Cadets placed 8th. The experience gained will certainly make the 1978 competition more challenging and rewarding.

Practice makes perfect, Craig.

1977 saw the return of a Winter Guard, which competed on its own, aided by recorded music. Under the fine direction of Al Smith and Kelly Doran, the Winter Guard made a good showing in several competitions, indicating a promising future.

Varsity Wrestling

The 1977-78 Hilton Varsity Wrestling had the best record and finish over any other wrestling team in Hilton's history. The team was ranked in the state (13th) and was Western Division champions and co-champions of Monroe County. The team had a record of 9-0-0 in league competition and a 11-1-1 record over all. The captains of this year's team were Ken Juergens and Mark Herman. The Cadets have a bright future ahead of them with an upcoming undefeated Junior Varsity team to fill the ranks of the leaving seniors.

Junior Varsity Wrestling

The 1977-78 Junior Varsity Wrestling Team went undefeated for the season (13-0-0). The team dominated the Penfield Christmas tournament by placing five 1st finishes and three 2nd places and winning the first place team trophy. The team went on to win the Monroe County Wrestlers league by beating the toughest teams in both eastern and western divisions. Highlights of the season were wins over Gates-Chili (29-28), Spencerport (30-25) and a win over previously undefeated Eastern Champions East Rochester (41-15). The team also recorded a shut out over Bishop Kearney (61-0), which is very rare in wrestling. This year's Junior Varsity Team should greatly enhance next year's Junior Varsity defense of the Western league Championship and Monroe County Co-Championship.

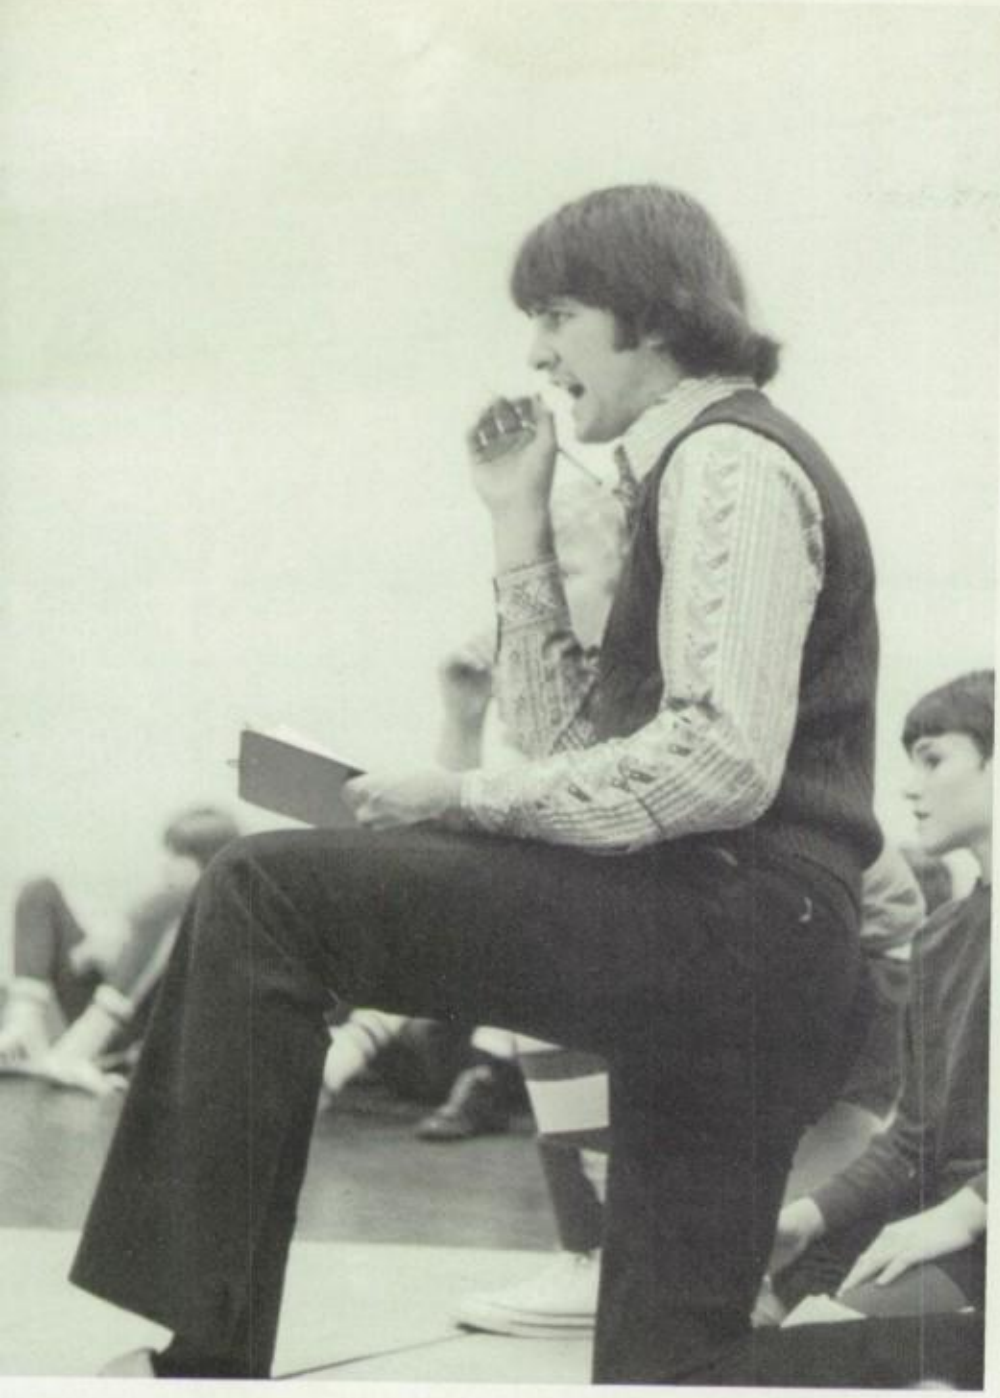
The team ended up undefeated for the season after wrestling all the toughest schools in Monroe County. It was truly an honor and a pleasure to coach such a strong and determined team of young athletes!" Thank You . . .

— Coach Hindmarch



"The highlight of the season occurred when the Spencerport coach told us that we were the first team to beat his team in his two years as a coach. Although everyone got some mat time, hopefully, more schools won't be afraid to wrestle Hilton wrestlers. Thus more of the future wrestlers will get to show their knowledge and skills . . ."

"WE ARE

Hilton Is for Real

After a 1-8 record for the 1976 season o one expected much from Hilton xcept Hilton itself.

So Webster Thomas was quite sur-rised when Hilton met them for the Western Divisional Championship title.

They started out the season by beating Greece Athena, last year's champions, 24-6. They then went on to win over Arcadia 23-0 and Webster Thomas 7-2.

Hilton Makes Gates Fourth Victim

On Homecoming weekend, Hilton played Gates-Chili. For the first time, Hil-on won the Homecoming game, 32-22, much to the fans' delight.

Hilton Marches to Fifth Consecutive Vic-ory

Hilton became known as the "Cinder-lla team" of the county. Call us what hey will, Hilton's football team showed heir might over and over by beating the Batavia Blue Devils 21-14.

The next game was a difficult one. They had to win the next two games so hey could meet Schroeder undefeated. The pressure was on.

They beat Roth 23-22; then went on to win over Greece Olympia 34-22. Hilton had set their goal. They were to meet Schroeder with a record of seven wins, 0 osses.

Schroeder Stops Hilton

It was the battle of the champions. And Hilton gave Schroeder a run for the money. Although losing to them 14-3, Hilton was still considered the champ.

The 1977 football team of Hilton High had gone fu ther than any other football team in Hilton. Schroede knew by the time our team left that we were not Cinde ellas but a team of big, bad wolves.

A surprise came the next weekend when Webste Thomas stopped Schroeder. Hilton still had a shot a the title if they beat Brockport. And beat them they did in the Cider Jug game. Hilton was now Western Div sional Co-Champions. The Cadets were the "giant kil ers" and certainly the season's most outstandin team. Congratulations to the 1977 football team of Hi ton High, and to the coach, Dick Todd, voted Coach o the Year.

Stadium Dedication

The students of Hilton High would like to give the appreciation and a big "thank you" to everyone wh contributed time, determination, and hard work i order to make our stadium facilities possible. Afte many fund-raising projects and numerous headaches the bleachers were on their way up in the summer o 1977. In October, 1500 people showed up in the pou ing rain to dedicate the new athletic facilities, and t induct the first five names into the Hilton Communit Hall of Fame. The Inducted were Mayor Thoma Younker, Mr. Joe Tolhurst, and Mr. John Partridge also the late Mrs. Ann Jennejahn and Mrs. Carol Ste vens. All have helped make the Hilton Athletic Progra possible.

The whole set-up made viewing the games muc more enjoyable for everyone. The lights made it poss ble for games to be played at night, and a new soun system for play-by-play listening was incorporated.

The Hilton Varsity Wrestling Team, under guardianship of Coach Al Krotz, came the first in Hilton's history to be both Western Division Champions and Co-ampions of Monroe County.

Hilton had started the season with devastating wins over Thomas, R. H. Sperry d East High. The team then took second out of eight teams in the Penfield ristmas Tournament and took fourth out of 16 teams in the very prestigious encerport Lions Tournament.

The Cadets had only one loss for the season against a strong Fairport team. The m had hoped to wrestle against Fairport again when the Eastern and Western isions Champions met to decide the county championship to avenge the loss. t Fairport lost against East Rochester and Hilton didn't get the chance to beat rport since East Rochester claimed the Eastern title with their win over Fairport.

Hilton came back from their loss to crush Greece Olympia 51-5. The Cadets re undefeated in league when they went against a good Spencerport team. Hil- had only beaten Spencerport once in nine years and on February 4, 1978, the dets beat Spencerport 35-20. The match was won by some key victories and s and plain tough wrestling by every member of the team.

After the Spencerport match, the team had to get ready again to face a very ong Churchville team for the Western Division title. Churchville, too, had eated Spencerport the week before and had only one league loss. The night was ruary 8 and the Cadets proved that they were the champions by defeating urchville 33-16. Hilton had done something no Hilton team had done before: to the Western Division for wrestling outright.

With the title still fresh in the teams' hand, the team went to East Rochester to ve who was the best in Monroe County. The Cadets had wrestled excellently executed their moves well. Despite this, the night did not go well and with poor ciating (this was agreed upon by six county coaches) the Cadets had to settle a tie and a Co-Championship. The final score was Hilton 25 and East Rochester

The Hilton wrestling team had a team meeting with Coach Krotz and Coach dmarch in the beginning of the season and was told the sky was the limit. They ched for and claimed a piece of that sky.

. . . And we'll keep on fighting till the end.

In Memory

Cathy Burch

April 17, 1960-
February 23, 1973

The gift of your friendship has touched many of us.
You were always there and ready to lend a hand.
Your life was overwhelmingly valuable and beautiful,
And that is why God chose you to come into his eternal world.

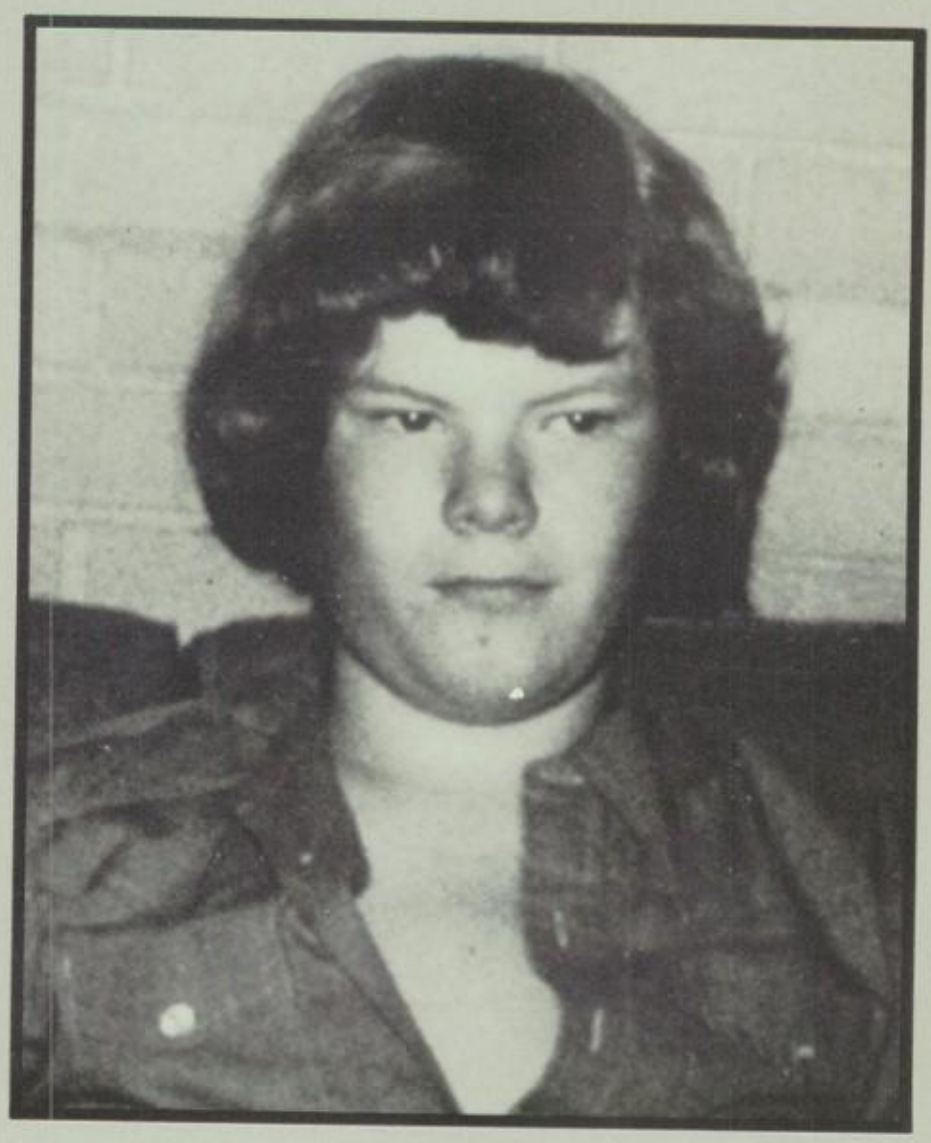
—A friend

Steve Thompson

August 23, 1960-
February 14, 1974

The years have gone by quickly
But the pain still remains.
Steve's and our paths were different.
His led to eternity.
Ours are still to be discovered.
Varied worlds have changed
And death is there to slow us,
Yet life ventures on.

—A friend



Class Officers and Advisers — They're always important; but during the senior year they're a necessity. Between magazine sales, senior ball, senior breakfast, senior banquet, graduation, and a variety of other senior activities, the class officers and advisers had their hands full. Of seven of them representing the Class of 1978 — Vicky Gavigan, Sue Cardillo, Lisa Coyle, Kathy Gavigan, Miss Nancy Maess, Mr. Tom Dowd and Mr. Bruce Klingler — there was not a beginner in the bunch. Each of them had at least one year's experience. This is probably one of the contributing reasons that this year's senior year turned out as well as it did.

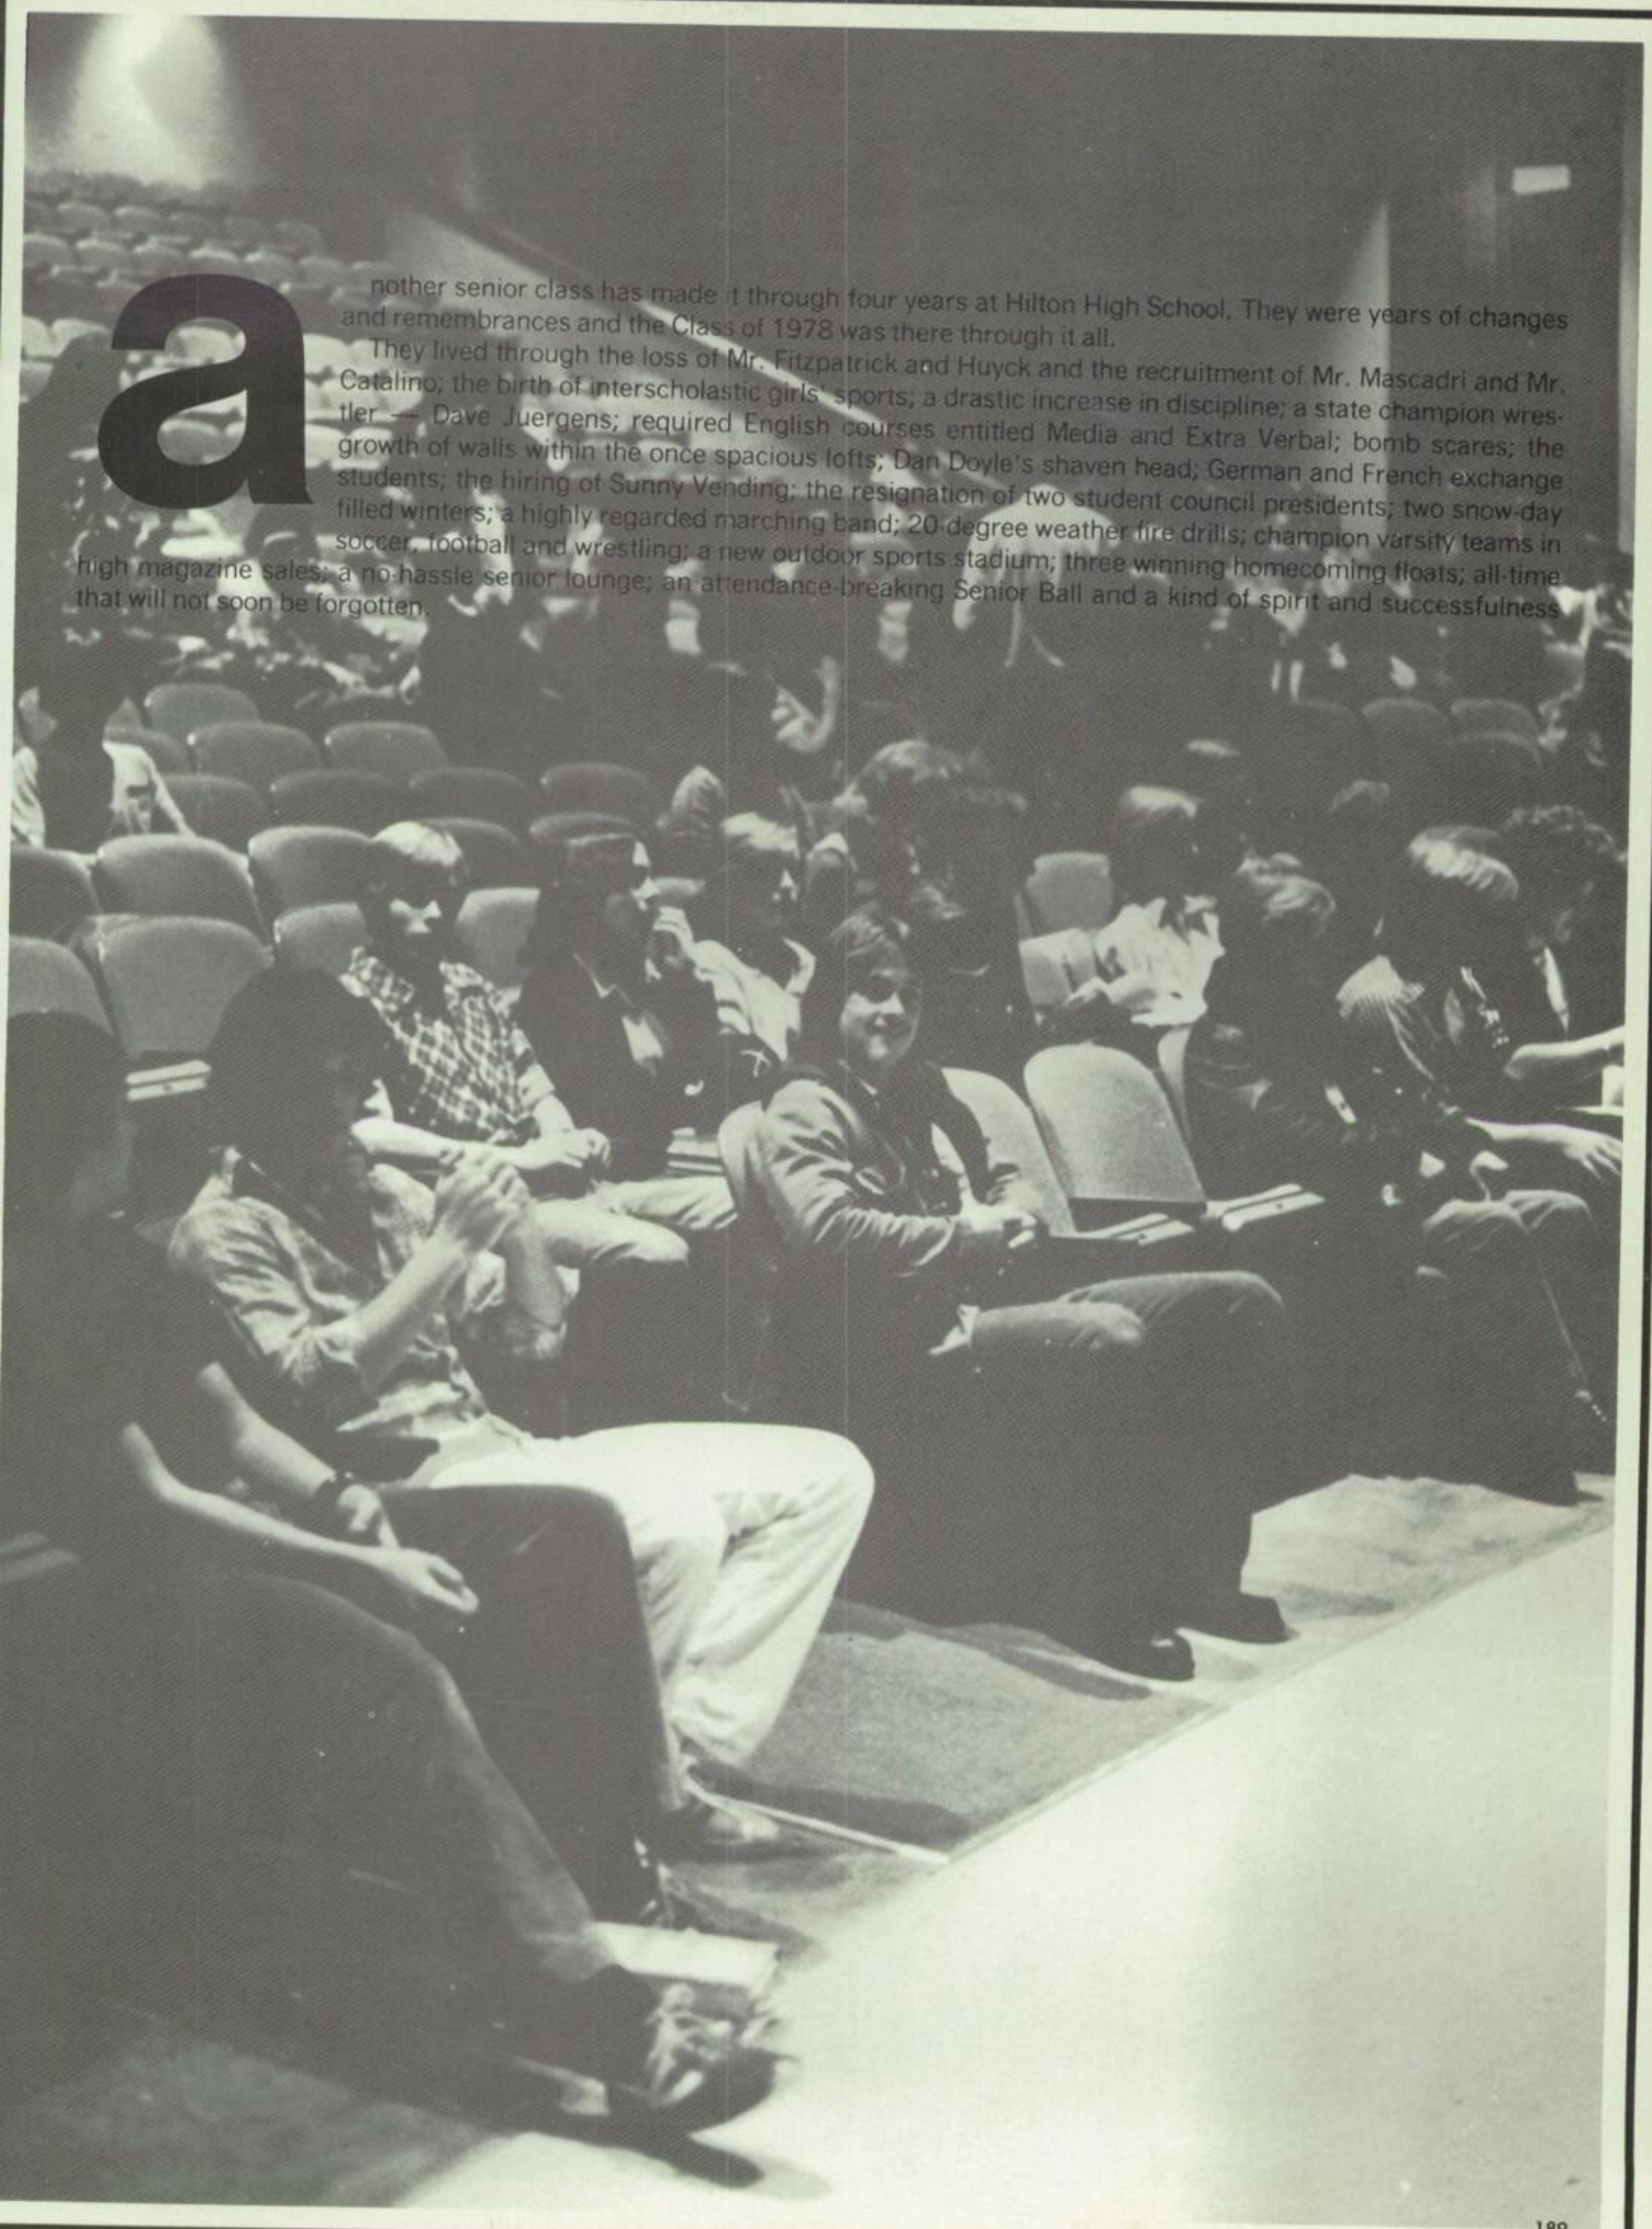
Advisers: [illegible] Tom Dowd, Miss Nancy Maess and Mr. Bruce Klingler.



Another senior class has made it through four years at Hilton High School. They were years of changes and remembrances and the Class of 1978 was there through it all.

They lived through the loss of Mr. Fitzpatrick and Huyck and the recruitment of Mr. Mascadri and Mr. Catalino; the birth of interscholastic girls' sports; a drastic increase in discipline; a state champion wrestler — Dave Juergens; required English courses entitled Media and Extra Verbal; bomb scares; the growth of walls within the once spacious lofts; Dan Doyle's shaven head; German and French exchange students; the hiring of Sunny Vending; the resignation of two student council presidents; two snow-day filled winters; a highly regarded marching band; 20-degree weather fire drills; champion varsity teams in soccer, football and wrestling; a new outdoor sports stadium; three winning homecoming floats; all-time high magazine sales; a no-hassle senior lounge; an attendance-breaking Senior Ball and a kind of spirit and successfulness that will not soon be forgotten.

halloween October 31st was the class of 1978's first chance to flaunt themselves as seniors and they certainly took advantage of the situation. A majority of the class came to school that morning dressed in their most imaginative Halloween costumes. The group paraded through all first period classes spreading Halloween cheer. At the end of the school day a social was held in the Commons for all seniors and faculty. Donuts and cider were provided and there was a donut-eating contest (with no hands) and dunking for apples competition between the teachers and students. Need it be said who won? Just another notch in the Singin', Swingin', Seniors' belt.

Greaser Day — Friday, February 3, 1978 was the third Senior Day of the year. Commonly known as Greaser Day, it gave seniors a chance to dress and act as a student of the fifties would have. Senior homeroom was equipped that morning with ponytails, bobby socks, leather jackets, saddle shoes, dark sunglasses, rolled-up jeans, pearl necklaces and white t-shirts. It was a day filled with fun, or to use true fifties lingo, it was "really keen."

Junior Play — "The Mousetrap" was presented by the Class of '78 on January 22, 23, and 25 of 1977. A mystery by Agatha Christie, it was set at a small resort in present-day England. The cast included Mark Rayome and Marie Turcotte as Giles and Molly Ralston, the owners of the resort; Bill Baldwin as the retired Major Metcalf; Angela Verdone as Miss Caswell, the "presumed" man; Bill Hess, as the neurotic Christopher Wren; Peter Barra as Mr. Paravicini, the smuggler from France; Diane Steffen as Mrs. Boyle, the old cranky cadaver; and Tom Goodhue as Detective Sergeant Trotter — the murderer. Peter Barra received the Norman Hessler Award for his contributions to the play. The production was directed by Ted and Edith Schreppel.

Senior Play — A comedy entitled Room Service was chosen as this year's Senior Play. It was directed by Mr. and Mrs. Schreppel as well as the student director Kelly Rowland and was presented on March 16, 17, 18 1978. "Room Service" was the story of a group of actors trying to put on a play entitled "Godspeed." The plot of the play revolved around their attempts to stay in a hotel without paying the bills so they could keep the money for their production. The results were hilarious. The play carried a cast of eight seniors, including a few whose talents had never been seen on the Hilton stage before.

Junior Prom — The Junior Prom, "If You Leave Me Now" was held on May 14, 1977, in the English Loft — but it sure didn't look like the English Loft. Due to the hard work of Chairmen Sue Mullen and Mary Purvee, Decorations Chairmen Pam Spaan and Jack Orchard, Publicity Chairman Linda Rodwell, and a variety of other diligent juniors, the prom was a huge success. Whether the night was spent relaxing in the streets of Paris, walking through the park and admiring the fish-equipped waterfall, or enjoying the music of Freeway on the dance floor, it was certainly a night to remember.

Danny Doyle and Dave Ramble — Voted best-looking couple.

The Court: Jack Orchard, Vicky Gavigan, Mary Eichas, Larry Berkel, Chuck Allen, Mary Purvee, Prince Hugh Forsythe, King Charlie Nesbitt, Queen Sue Cardillo, Princess Lisa Coyle, Pat Doran, Sue Mullen, Ken Juergens, Jeannine Nowack, Tim Bostley, Kathy Gavigan.

Senior Ball — The Senior Ball "We May Never Pass This Way Again" was held on February 19, 1978, at the Rochester Marriott Inn. The evening was a night to remember as the result of many hours of hard work put in by the officers and advisers. Seniors enjoyed the evening in the huge ballroom at the Marriott and danced to the music of "Sweet Feelin'." Along with the record-breaking attendance and the beautiful setting at the Marriott, the Ball was a huge success.

The Court — Sue Cardillo, Vicky Gavigan, Hugh Forsythe, Lisa Coyle, Mary Eichas, Laurie Murdoch, Jack Orchard, Tim Bostley, Kathy Gavigan, Pat Doran, Jeannine Nowack, Brett Daggs, Charlie Nesbitt, Chuck Allen, Dan Doyle, Judy Palumbo.

Now that you've seen most of the book, here's the page that informs you of the people responsible for your praise or criticism. They're a group of seniors selected by last year's staff and their adviser, Mrs. Fuller. Still under the direction of Mrs. Fuller and the priceless guidance of this year's editor-in-chief, Pam Spaan, they've donated many tenth periods and even a couple of sleepless nights to bring this book to you. All they are hoping for in return is your satisfaction — and maybe a call of commendation from the editor of Time Magazine or the New York Times.

If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them.

— Henry David Thoreau

As we, the class of 1978, passed through our years at Hilton High, our goal was to build a lasting foundation with our school and others. Each individual as a Freshman built his own castle and fulfilled that dream by finally becoming a Senior.

Our memories of this time and place will always be a part of us in all we do. We hope that Hilton High will always remember us.

The Class of 1978

'Tis great to dream
How well we know,
When hearts are young
And eyes aglow,
To look ahead
Where sunshine waits,
And ever walk
Through hopeful gates.

'Tis great to dream
Of things to be,
And plan the morrow
We shall see,
By starry streams
Where youth shall stand,
The whole wide world
Within their hand.

'Tis great to dream
When hopes are high,
And minds can touch
A star-filled sky,
A beauty rich
So very sure,
What-e-'er might come
We can endure.

'Tis great to dream
As years are spent,
And happy hearts
Know sweet content,
For best of all
A lifetime through,
Is when at last
That dream comes true.

Now you can enlist in the Army and start college at the same time

Over 1300 colleges, universities, vocational-technical schools and the Army have an educational plan called Project AHEAD (Army Help for Education And Development).

If you qualify under Project AHEAD, you choose the participating school you'd like to graduate from before you enlist. Then no matter where you serve while in the Army, you'll take courses taught by accredited colleges right on post, with the Army paying up to 75% of the tuition and fees for approved courses.

If you're interested in starting on your college education while you're working at a good occupation, call me.

For sale. The future of the American economic system.

Too many young people know too little about why business is in business. They're not only misinformed, they're critical and even hostile.

Whose fault is it?

It's time business itself accepted a major share of the blame. Instead of telling young people the economic facts of life, we've been letting them grow up believing in a free lunch.

So when an opportunity like Junior Achievement comes along, we'd better not miss it.

With this spoon-handle ring, a local JA company is learning about business by actually managing one.

The Achievers issue stock; elect officers; run assembly lines manufacturing the rings; chart pricing and marketing options; keep books; pay wages, taxes, and rent; monitor product quality and production safety; participate in trade fairs; hold board meetings and sales drives; write an annual report; and, they hope, earn profits to pay dividends.

Kodak advisors John Holt and Marian Beach meet weekly with their Junior Achievement company.

Most of the things any company does.

During the school year, more than 1300 Monroe County high school students in 53 JA companies will be doing roughly the same thing.

To encourage JA members, Kodak and many other local firms invest their money in Junior Achievement. Kodak men and women also volunteer their time, spending one evening a week to counsel eight JA companies.

Someday, we think the payoff will exceed the investment. Which is only good business.
